

The local powerline infrastucture is over 50 years old and generates enough noise and interference to HF radio without adding BPL. In periods of dry weather the noise obliterates all but the very strongest signals. There are a number of licensed Amateur Radio Operators in my area that BPL would adversely effect.